

Verbs _ Tag Questions _ Exercise 3 _ Answer Key

1. School has closed, hasn't it?
2. The pupils have gone, haven't they?
3. Miss Higgins hasn't gone, has she?
4. The play hasn't closed, has it?
5. The professor hasn't retired, has he?
6. Mr. and Mrs. Jessup have gone home, haven't they?
7. The sun has set, hasn't it?
8. The rain has stopped, hasn't it?
9. The taxi hasn't come yet, has it?
10. The mail hasn't come yet, has it?
11. Our team has won the pennant, hasn't it?
12. The deadline hasn't arrived yet, has it?
13. My boss hasn't come in yet, has he/she?
14. She has done a good job, hasn't she?
15. They have built a new house, haven't they?
16. She has worn that dress before, hasn't she?
17. You have played a lot of bridge, haven't you?
18. The flood has done a lot of damage, hasn't it?
19. The children have done well in school, haven't they?
20. The house hasn't been sold yet, has it?
21. Some of us are good students, aren't we?

22. The man in the brown coat will give a speech tonight, won't he?
23. All of the children can swim, can't they?
24. The wooden spoon was on the table this morning, wasn't it?
25. The Rocky Mountains are more beautiful than the Gatineau Hills, aren't they?
26. You and your friend finished the test faster than the others, didn't you?
27. The new books will arrive tomorrow, won't they?
28. My mother and I were going to do the dishes, weren't we?
29. My father and brother weren't going to do the dishes, were they?
30. All of the students weren't from the same country, were they?
31. George left class early today, didn't he?
32. He is an excellent student, isn't he?
33. She has never gotten in touch with you, has she?
34. Today is Wednesday, isn't it?
35. You live in Brooklyn, don't you?
36. You were absent yesterday, weren't you?
37. Both men look very much alike, don't they?
38. They don't know each other, do they?
39. This street runs north and south, doesn't it?
40. We won't have to stand in line, will we?
41. You mailed that letter, didn't you?